Living Advertisements. A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopiela to protect prescriptions of the pharmacopiela to pretect hip which resisted pertinaciously all efforts the human system against the body ills su- made for its removal. After treatment for a perinduced by unbealthy surroundings, is tertalniy worthy of universal confidence. It is medaly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hestetter's Stomach . Bitters is so exceedingly popular to localities subject to the visitation of mlasmatic fevers and other diseases produced by empoisoned air. A family that has escaped slekness during a sickly season in consequence of using the Bit-ters as a safeguard, is a living advertisement of the virtues of the preparation. The whole neighborhood realize the fact. "I couldn't have believed it," says one. "I scarcely credited the advertisements; but one must believe what one sees," save another. "It is the very thing we need in this unwholecome section of No. 17 South Front Street, country," remarks a third. And the result is that the instinct of self-defense, the first law of nature, induce - three-foorths of that community to obtain a supply of the great vegetable antidote before the next sickly season sets in. In winter, when the system requires extra vigor and c'asticity to enable it to buille the effects of damp and cold, the Bitters will be found particularly serviceable. Rheumatism will not be apt to fasten upon museues and nerves that have been braced up by this excellent layigor. and and negative; nor will the severities of the season, which have such a disastrous offect on the pulmonary organs of the feeble and dellsate, be likely to exercise the same untoward influence in cases where the stomach and the external surface of the body (which always sympathizes with the digestive organs; have been toned and stimulated by a course of the restorative.
